

Editorial

We are pleased to announce that our journal has been accepted for coverage in the database of the Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia). Annales Societatis Geologorum Poloniae will be covered beginning with vol. 77 (2007) in the Science Citation Index-Expanded (SCIE), including the Web of Science ISI Alerting Service.

Let us remind you that all our papers are available in the electronic format as PDF files at: <http://www.asgp.pl>.
